Love makes the world go round

Celebrating love and cherish it with your loved ones should not wait even during this period. Thus, elopements and micro weddings are ideal for your dreamy intimate wedding. The focus is on the couple and the love that brings them together. And that is what it's all about!

Elopement or Micro Wedding

While the technical definition of eloping means to run away and get married without telling anyone, over the years eloping is typically the couple and some times max. 10 guests. This is ideal for those seeking total freedom and adventure.

Micro wedding as you have guessed is a traditional wedding but with not more than 50 guests so the couple has more time to spend with their dearest.
